CITIZENSHIP BY INVESTMENT

Dominica has been operating a citizenship investment program since 1993, remains one of the oldest and longest running in the world.

Dominica CBI remains the most popular second passport program and has received several accolades for efficiency and processing of applications.

The Dominica Citizenship by Investment Programme is administered by the Citizenship by Investment Unit (CBIU), a Government office established under section three of the 2014 Regulation

The Government has remained firmly committed to make CBI best in the world with consistent and substantive improvements in strengthening the citizenship scheme..

Successful applicants for citizenship by investment can then apply for a Dominican passport can benefit from visa-free travel or visa-on-arrival to over 120 territories, from Singapore and Hong Kong, to the European Union and the United Kingdom.

The Revenues from CBI scheme, powers more than half of Dominica's economy and the revenues were spent on housing, hospitals, airports and several social and public infrastructure projects.

The recent growth in tourism has transformed the hospitality sector with several five star resorts developed funded by the CBI programme.

Christopher Columbus, sailing for Spain, named the island as Dominica, after the Latin term "dies Dominica" for Sunday, the day on which the Spanish first saw it in November 1493

DOMINICA

Dominica is the "Nature Isle of the Caribbean", a paradise of tropical rainforests, mountains, springs and lakes. Dominica is blessed with hundreds of rivers and waterfalls, rugged mountains covered in green, and dramatic cliffs overlooking the turquoise sea.

Dominica has been named as one of the world's happiest places to live boasting a high number of citizens who have lived to be older than 100, the island offers a tranquil lifestyle within a safe, peaceful, and pristine environment, and a culturally vibrant and friendly community.

The Sisserou parrot, also known as the imperial amazon and found only on Dominica, is the island's national bird featured on the national flag

Dominica became an independent country from United Kingdom in Nov 1978. Dominica has a population of 71,000, is a member of Caribbean Community (CARICOM) and of the Commonwealth of Nations.

The Government maintains missions to assist its citizens in Washington D.C., New York, London, Abu Dhabi and Brussels, and represented jointly with other OECS members in Canada.

Dominica is also one of the most vulnerable countries in the world for natural disasters. This is also why small economies have embraced CIP as a model for disaster prevention. A double disaster, a pandemic with hurricanes underlined the importance of sovereign citizenship investment fund for disaster relief and recovery.
